A BILL

To amend the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act to provide for reimbursement to members of the Armed Forces of tuition for programs of education delayed by military service, for deferment of students loans and reduced interest rates for members of the Armed Forces during periods of military service, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

- 2 This Act may be cited as the "Veterans Education
- 3 Tuition Support Act of 2007" or the "VETS Act of
- 4 2007".

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

- 6 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
- 7 ings:
- 8 (1) There is no more important cause than the
- 9 defense of the United States.
- 10 (2) Since 2003, nearly 1,300,000 members of
- the Armed Forces have served in Iraq or Afghani-
- stan and over 420,000 members of the Armed
- 13 Forces in the National Guard and Reserve have been
- called to active duty.
- 15 (3) The men and women of the Armed Forces
- put their lives on hold, leave their families, jobs, and
- postsecondary education in order to serve the United
- 18 States, and do so with distinction.
- 19 (4) In 2005, 500,000 veterans claimed edu-
- 20 cation benefits from the Department of Veterans Af-
- fairs and approximately 47,000 of those veterans are
- 22 members of the National Guard or Reserve and re-
- cently returned from serving in the Armed Forces in
- 24 Iraq or Afghanistan.
- 25 (5) Many members of the Armed Forces depend
- on various forms of financial aid in addition to their

- 1 Montgomery GI Bill benefits to help fund their col-2 lege education.
- 3 (6) The 6 percent interest rate cap on all debts 4 of members of the Armed Forces called to active 5 duty guaranteed by the Servicemembers Civil Relief 6 Act (50 U.S.C. App. 501 et seq.) has been inter-7 preted narrowly by the Secretary of Education not 8 to apply to Federal student loans.
 - (7) Members of the Armed Forces who return from deployment overseas in the Armed Forces and who are unable to continue immediately a program of education that they were forced to discontinue because of such deployment are being forced to begin making payments on their private students loans only 1 month after such return.
 - (8) The transition from service in the Armed Forces in a combat theater to a classroom is a difficult challenge and should not be rushed merely to avoid paying back student loans.
 - (9) As of the date of the enactment of this Act, colleges are not required to make reasonable accommodations for students who are called to active duty in the Armed Forces, such as tuition reimbursement and relaxation of requirements for reenrollment.

- 1 (10) Members of the Armed Forces who return 2 from deployment overseas and attempt to reenroll in 3 a program of education are overwhelmed with bu-4 reaucracy.
 - (11) Studies have shown that symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and other non-apparent injuries may take up to a year to manifest.
 - (12) Members of the Armed Forces deserve to have at least a full academic year to reintegrate into society before they are required to begin paying back student loans.
 - (13) Members of the Armed Forces who fight to protect the United States deserve a Government that fights to protect them.
 - (b) Purposes.—The purposes of this Act are—
 - (1) to assist members of the Armed Forces who return from a deployment to transition from military service to civilian life and to undertake programs of education they were forced to discontinue because of such deployment;
 - (2) to provide a 13-month transition period for such members to reenroll in such a program of education and to begin paying back student loans undertaken for such program of education;
